THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 2016

1:30-4:30 PM

60 LAFAYETTE STREET, FAMILY COURT LIBRARY, 10TH FLOOR

This seminar will address best practices, academic theory, and effective tools in conferencing, settlement, and mediation, and offer 3 CLE Credits in Professional Practice.* Partial Credit will not be awarded; you must be present for the entire session to receive credit. Lunch will be provided.

SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Simeon H. Baum, Esq., President, Resolve Mediation Services, Inc.;

Rebecca Price, Esq., Director, ADR Program US District Court SDNY; and

Daniel Weitz, Esq., UCS State ADR Coordinator and Deputy Director, Division of Professional and Court Services.

PRE-REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED. Registration will be on a first come-first served basis, and a wait-list will be created if the program is over subscribed.

The NEW Registration Procedure to attend this Seminar and be granted Excused Leave (EDLV), is as follows:

FIRST – Email your supervisor and request approval to attend the seminar.

SECOND – Once you have supervisory approval, forward the email, by June 15, 2016, to Brenda Levinson, at blevinso@nycourts.gov and you will be included on a master list requesting excused leave.

Course materials will be available on the Association's website, <http://www.caanyc.org>, at least one week prior to the seminar.

Lunch selection options will be forwarded following registration.

* Application for CLE accreditation of this course or program in New York is currently pending.
